

Rubric for Group Discussion Standard

4 POINTS:

- Student supported position with a clear, in-depth reasoned application of Core Democratic Values.
- Student participated in the discussion by making many highly relevant, insightful and complex statements throughout the discussion.
- Student responded appropriately at all times and made a concerted effort to invite and acknowledge the contributions of others.
- Student asked in-depth questions that kept the discussion on track.

3 POINTS:

- Student supports position with an application of Core Democratic Values.
- Student participated in discussion by making relevant statements.
- Student responded appropriately at all times.
- Student asked pertinent questions.

2 POINTS:

- Student identifies Core Democratic Values but cannot apply them to support their position.
- Student participates in discussion but statements were only marginally relevant.
- Student responds inappropriately but made some appropriate comments.
- Questions posed were either marginally relevant or inappropriate.

0 POINTS:

- Student does not identify nor support position with Core Democratic Values.
- Student did not make any relevant statements during the discussion.
- Student responded inappropriately and made no appropriate comments OR did not take part in the discussion.
- Student asked no questions or the questions were irrelevant or inappropriate.

