

Personal Values and Motivations Cards

Cut apart the cards and prioritize the cards by sorting them by how strongly each one motivates your choices. Put them in order of what is most important to you as you think about the decisions you make every day, your plans for the future, and how you choose to act for the good of the community. Reflect on whether the top 3-5 values drive what you spend your time on in life.

Meet with others to compare and discuss what the values mean to you. Listen and respond with respect for the different perspectives we each bring to our work and relationships.

<h3>Achievement</h3> Reaching an excellent result and getting recognition	<h3>Equity</h3> People getting what they need in status, rights, and opportunities	<h3>Affluence</h3> Having lots of money and personal possessions
<h3>Family</h3> Spending time with loved ones	<h3>Belonging</h3> Feeling connected to others	<h3>Freedom</h3> Having personal choice and free will
<h3>Compassion</h3> Practicing care and empathy	<h3>Friendship</h3> Maintaining healthy relationships	<h3>Courage</h3> Taking action in the face of fears and difficult situations
<h3>Happiness</h3> Finding joy in life	<h3>Innovation</h3> Exploring new and creative ways of doing things	<h3>Obligation</h3> Committing to a duty or promise

Integrity Being honest and ethical in life	Personal Growth Gaining new skills and self-awareness	Justice Seeking fair treatment for all and speaking up against inequities
Power Having influence over others	Leadership Guiding people and projects and being a role-model	Recognition Getting noticed for efforts
Learning Pursuing knowledge	Responsibility Following through on commitments	Risk Exploring the unknown and testing limits
Service Acting for the good of others or needs in the community	Spirituality Connecting to a higher purpose	Curiosity Questioning, exploring, and being open to other viewpoints
Tradition Respecting and adhering to established ways	Authenticity Being true to one's character and honest with self and others	Resilience Staying with something even when the situation is difficult

